25 A CARD.—As I was engaged last Wed-acday and Thursday to perform at the Theatre, in Alexandria, and there being no Music present on those two nights, I deem it my duty to inform the public the reason that there was none. I had, on those two nights, engagements to perform connect ed with my duties as a member of the Marine Band, which it was impossible for me to neglect, and I engaged to play at the Theatre those two nights, Mr. Carl Bergman and Edward Wrench who promised faithfully to attend. They having failed to perform that which they promised to do, the cause of the disappointment to both the mana-ger and the public should be attributed them. JOHN ESPUTA.

LOCAL ITEMS.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY .- Papers numerously signed were in circulation on Saturday. inviting the citizens of Alexandria to convene in public meeting on the 18th of Octosident, if nominated by a thousand Charles- ber, for the purpose of forming an Agricultural Society, with the view of holding an Agricultural Fair and Cattle Show in this city annually. It is proposed that the first exhibition be held in the Fall of 1860. We hope the meeting will be held, and that all of our citizens will lend their aid and countenance to this important move. There once, and the proper steps taken, we will have a Fair that will equal any ever held in the State. Let the good work be pushed Petersburg for the year ending September forward, and by all means let us have the Fair and Cattle show in 1860!

BANK FAILURE .- We learn that the Bank of Manassa, located at Front Royal, Warren The assessed value of real estate in the County, Virginia, has failed, having closed city of Richmond for the fiscal year of 1859 its doors on Friday last. JAMES McKENZIE, esq., one of our most worthy and estimable citizens, a native of this place, died on Friday night last. His health had been infirm for some time pastbut he always bore his suffering calmly, and in a christian spirit. Mr. McK. had been connected with the Banking institutions in this place for a number of years, and at the time of his death was an officer in the Exchange Bank.

PASSENGER CARS .- The schooner Brothers, which arrived at this port yesterday from Jersey City, brought two splendid new passenger cars for the Orange and Alexandria Railroad. In view of the anticipated increase in the travel over this road upon its completion to Lynchburg, the Company are making ample preparations for the comfortable transportation of passengers.

Baltimore. On the way to the cars he escaped from his friend and went to the sixth ward, where he made an assault on two females. He was again arrested and conveyed to the guard house for safe keeping till he can be removed to his home. He is a resident of Virginia a very respectable man, and this attack of insanity is the first he has suffered. It is stated that the Masonie fraternity contemplate the raising of a fund of $100,-000 a portion of which is to be devoted to the building of a masonic Temple at the seat of the federal government, and the revenue derived from it to be applied to the purpose of establishing a house for the support and education of the orphan children of deceased masons. Hugh Latham, of Alexandria, well known in accommodating the travelling public, yesterday afternoon exhibited his spacious thirty passenger omnibus coach, which has just arrived from Baltimore. The coach, which contained thirty-five persons, was drawn by six elegant white horses, and as they glided along our avenue and streets produced universal admiration.

WARRENTON .- The following letter written in reply to a gentleman who asked for information on the subject spoken of, is published in the Leesburg Washingtonian:

WARRENTON, Sept. 17, 1859.—DEAR SIR: Yours of the 14th inst., came duly to hand, and I avail myself of the first leisure moment to answer it.

You ask me whether the branch to Warrentor, of the Orange Railroad has injured the town? So far from injuring it, I consider it has given and continues to give life energy and impulse to every thing. It would be difficult to find a practical observant man here, who thinks otherwise. It would be greatly better for us, had Warrenton been made a point in the main line. By unfortunate policy, that being omitted, we took, and continue to enjoy the stem, as the next greatest advantage.

With great respect, I am, truly yours. B. H. SHACKELFORD.

MISS CHARLOTTE THOMPSON. - The Theatre going public here will be pleased at the opportunity of witnessing during the week, the charming impersonations of this gifted and beautiful young actress. The following notice of her is from a Toronto paper :

"Miss CHARLOTTE THOMPSON has concluded an other week of the extension of her engagement, in which we again experienced the pleasure of seeing her repeat some of her most fascinating characters. She is a perfect little enchantress. There is no role of character in which she appears that she does not shine a bewitching "star." Her defects are few and insignificant; her accomplishments many. These latter, united with true femi nine grace, render her representations of every character in which she appears irresistably charm ing. The devoted paternal love of Parthenia the ardent yet pure attachment of Juliet; the pride and passion of Pauline; the winning grace, the forward simplicity, and the nairete of Miss Hardcastle; the spoilt, yet affectionate, warm-hearted "Little Treasure," are all held forth to the audi-ence in the true colorings of nature. Miss Thompson is gifted in an eminent degree with that quali-fication so necessary to all persons who strive to PHILADELPHIA AND NEW YORK.
